h. “Fiscal period” sometimes called financial period or budget period is the period or duration of time in which the Co-operative collects revenue, spends money and provides an accounting of all its financial transactions to its membership.

i. “Indemnification” or “to indemnify” refers to the legal obligation to reimburse or pay any and all related costs of any actual or threatened legal proceedings arising from the actions or omissions of Directors and Officers of the Co-operative in the exercise of their duties and responsibilities of the Co-operative.

j. “Member” means any member or as defined in Article 5.

k. “Member delegate” refers to any individual whom is elected, appointed or otherwise designated by either an institutional or corporate members to represent such member at any AGM or Special Membership Meeting of the Co-operative;

l. “Proxy” or “proxy voting” refers to the ability of a member of the Co-operative to be delegated the right to vote for another absentee member at an AGM or Special Membership Meeting of the Co-operative.

m. “Quorum” refers to the minimal number of officers or members of the Co-operative or Board or committee (usually a majority) required being present for the valid transaction of business.

Article 4 - Mandate and Objective

Section 4.1 - Mandate

The Social Justice Co-operative has, as its core commitment, to advance the cause of social, economic and political justice for the people of Newfoundland and Labrador.

Section 4.2 - Objectives

Given that our vision of “Social justice” is that everyone in society should be afforded the same economic, political and social rights and opportunities and consistent with the Articles of Incorporation, our vision and mandate, the objectives of the Co-operative shall be:

a. To research, analyze and speak to the structural causes of social injustice locally and globally;

b. To provide policy alternatives to all levels of government that will address and redress matters of social, economic and political inequality in Newfoundland and Labrador;

- c. To develop and provide public education on the link between the global and the local structural causes of poverty and increase awareness of the need for and the value of social justice in Newfoundland and Labrador and around the world;
- d. To be an example of an active and engaged citizenry, initiating and supporting campaigns and activities that give voice to people and the environment that become the victims of social injustice;
- e. To develop partnerships with other social justice groups and collaborate with them to achieve common social justice goals;
- f. To provide social justice related educational/training services and any other relevant services to our members and other interested parties;
- g. To promote membership and active participation in the Social Justice Co-operative;
- h. To create and maintain a physical symbol and focal point for social justice activities in Newfoundland and Labrador;
- i. To engage in any and all activities that will enable the Co-operative to achieve its general mandate and objectives.

Article 5 - Membership

Section 5.1 - Membership Categories

1. Consistent with the co-operative principle of open membership and the inherent social justice value of inclusion and equality, membership in the co-operative shall be open to any individuals or non-governmental organization or corporate entity that subscribe to and support the beliefs and mandate and objectives of the Co-operative. There shall be three (3) categories of membership:
 - a. Individual Membership: Any individual person who agrees with our values
 - b. Organizational/Institutional Membership: Any non-governmental organization or institution, incorporated or unincorporated, that agrees with our values (including but not limited to: non-profit corporations, unions, municipalities, universities, schools, etc.).
 - c. Corporate Membership: Any incorporated, unincorporated, proprietorship, co-operative or credit union business that agrees with our values

Section 5.2 - Application for Membership

2. Application for membership may be made in writing or on a form, prescribed from time to time by the Board, and shall be approved by a majority vote of the Directors at a duly convened meeting of the Board.

Section 5.3 - Share Purchase Requirements

Once approved as a member of the Co-operative, any individual, organization/institution or corporate member must agree to purchase the required number of membership shares as set forth in Article 6. Any member that fails to purchase the required membership shares as outlined in Article 6 may have its membership revoked by a majority vote of the Board.

Section 5.4 - Withdrawal of Membership

In accordance with Section 84 of the Act and with 6 months' notice, a member may apply, in writing, for withdrawal from the Co-operative and the reimbursement of all of its membership shares.

Section 5.5 - Revocation of Membership

Any member of the Co-operative may have its membership revoked by a majority vote of the Board if, in the opinion of the Board, the member has not complied with the terms and conditions of membership or is deemed to no longer support the aims and objectives of the Co-operative.

Section 5.6 - Appeal of Revocation

A member can appeal said revocation by requesting an appeal in writing. Written request for such an appeal must be in the hands of the Secretary or other Director, at least fourteen (14) calendar days prior to an Annual General Meeting (AGM) or Special Membership Meeting called for that purpose.

The Board shall present the appeal to the membership present at the meeting outlining the reason for the revocation under question. The revoked member, or a designate, shall have the right to address the membership with respect to the basis of the appeal, at which point, a majority vote of the membership shall decide on whether the appeal is upheld or sustained.

Section 5.7 - Other Membership Categories

The Board may establish, from time to time, other non-voting membership categories such as Associate or Honorary membership along with any fees and conditions and privileges thereto.

Article 6 - Shares

Section 6.1 - Par Value of Share

The par value of common shares of the Co-operative shall be ten dollars ($10) which shall never be withdrawn, transferred, repaid or otherwise disposed of at more than the part value.

Section 6.2 - Specific Share Requirements per Membership Category

The required number of shares required to be purchased, and any conditions of purchase, for each of the membership categories in order to be considered full members of the Co-operative with all the rights and privileges, are as follows:

- a. Individual Membership: Individual members may only purchase one (1) share.
- b. Organizational/Institutional Membership: Organizational/institutional members must purchase at least ten (10) shares.
- c. Corporate Membership: Corporate members must purchase at least ten (10) shares.

Section 6.3 - Effect of Failure to Purchase Required Shares

If any member does not purchase the full requirement of shares within the prescribed time period, the member's rights and privileges are suspended until the member meets all membership terms and conditions.

Section 6.4 - Transfer of Shares

Subject to the Act, a member (transferor) may transfer common membership shares to another member (transferee) upon written request of the transferor and said request is approved by the Board. Both the transferor and transferee will be notified of the decision and the share register shall be amended as per Section 31(e) of the Act.

Section 6.5 - Payment of Dividends on Membership Shares

The Co-operative shall not pay any dividends or interest on its common membership shares.

Article 7 – Activity Fund

Section 7.1 – Annual Contributions to Activity Fund

All members shall, where able, make an annual financial contribution to the Co-operative's Activity Fund.

Section 7.2 – Purpose of Activity Fund

The Activity Fund shall be used to further the objectives of the Co-op, as outlined in Article 4. Acceptable activities include but are not limited to educating members by hosting events and creating print and digital materials; contracting staff to help fulfill the objectives of the Co-op; and establishing grants to fund external activities which further the Co-op's mandate.

Article 8 - Surplus

Section 8.1 - Required Allocation of Surplus

Where the Co-operative has a surplus at the end of its fiscal year, it shall apply that surplus as follows:

- a. First, to pay income tax;
- b. Second, to return all or part of a deficit it has previously incurred;
- c. Third, to maintain a reserve that the Co-operative is required to maintain under the Act; and/or
- d. Fourth, where the three (3) previous conditions have been met, to be retained by the Co-operative to support the further delivery of services and/or further delivery of the mandate of the Co-operative.

Article 9 - Member Delegates, Voting Rights & Procedures

Section 9.1- One Member, One Vote Principle

Each member and member delegate is entitled to one (1) vote on all matters at any Annual General or Special Membership Meeting of the Co-operative.

Section 9.2 - Institutional & Corporate Delegate Provision

Subject to these by-laws, both institutional and corporate members shall appoint/elect/assign one (1) delegate who shall represent the member and have one (1) vote on all matters at any Annual General or Special Membership Meetings of the Co-operative. An individual cannot be elected/appointed a delegate for more than one member.

Section 9.3- Delegate One-Vote Limitation

Without exception and under no circumstances can an individual exercise no more than one

(1) vote by virtue of representing themselves and/or being a delegate for an institutional or corporate member.

Section 9.4 - Board Capacity to Make Policy Re Delegate Validation

With respect to section 8.2, the Board may, from time to time, devise policies, procedures and relevant forms to identify, confirm and validate member delegates.

Section 9.5 - Manner of Voting

Every question submitted to a vote at any AGM or Special Membership Meeting of the Co-operative shall be decided by voice or showing of hands, unless at least five (5) members present at the meeting call for a secret ballot.

Section 9.6 - Proxy Voting Prohibited

Voting by proxy is not permitted under any circumstances.

Section 9.7 - Effect of a Tie-Vote

Should the resulting vote on a question put forward at a general or special meeting of the Corporation be a tie, the resolution/motion shall be considered lost.

Article 10 - Annual & Other Special Membership Meetings

Section 10.1 - Requirement of Annual General Meeting

The Board shall convene an annual meeting, called the Annual General Meeting (AGM), of the Co-operative within four (4) months of the end of the fiscal year of the Co-operative. The date, time and location of said meeting shall be determined by the Board. The purpose of the AGM is to receive and adopt the financial and other Board reports for the previous year, to elect the Board of Directors, and to conduct such other business related to the aims and objectives of the Co-operative that would ordinarily require the permission and/or direction of the membership.

Section 10.2 - Notice of AGM to Members

Notice with respect to the date, time and place of that AGM shall be sent to the membership via letter, e-mail or fax at least twenty-one (21) calendar days prior to the date of the meeting.

Section 10.3 - Quorum

The quorum for any AGM or other Special Membership Meeting of the Co-operative shall be a minimum of fifteen (15) member or member delegates.

Section 10.4 - Special Membership Meeting

Special Membership Meetings may be convened under the following circumstances:

- a. The Board may convene a Special Membership Meeting for any purpose at any time it deems necessary and, in doing so, shall follow the rules and procedures as outlined in this Article for an AGM.
- b. The Board shall also convene a Special Membership Meeting at the signed written petition of no less than ten (10) members of the Co-operative. The petition shall clearly state the purpose of the meeting and only such business shall be transacted at the meeting as is specified in the petition. Upon receipt of the petition, the Board shall convene a Special Membership Meeting within thirty (30) calendar days of receipt of the written petition. All members shall be notified of said meeting in writing or by e-mail of the date, time, place and express purpose of said meeting, at least fourteen (14) calendar days prior to the date of the meeting.
- c. Should the Board fail to convene the Special Membership as per Article 10.4, then the members whose names appear on the petition shall have the power to convene such a meeting subject to the notification and quorum rules as outlined in Sections 10.2 and 10.3 respectively.

Article 11 - Board of Directors

Section 11.1 - Establishment of Board of Directors to Govern Co-operative

In between AGMs of the Co-operative and subject to these by-laws, the affairs of the Co-operative shall be governed by a Board of Directors consisting of nine (9) members or member delegates who shall be elected by members participating in an AGM of the Co-operative.

Section 11.2 - Eligibility to be a Director

Any individual member or any appointed/elected/assigned delegate of a member of the Co-operative who is in attendance at an AGM or Special Membership Meeting or who provides a written letter of intent to run is eligible for election to the Board.

Section 11.3 - Term of Office & Term Limits

The term of office of a Director shall be three (3) years, arranged so that three (3) directors are elected in each year of a three-year rotation, excepting those who are elected to fill vacancies, in which case the director shall serve the duration of the unexpired term. For the first time this staggered-term system is used, the nine (9) Directors can agree on a procedure to decide which Directors will have three-year, two-year, and one-year terms.

Section 11.4 - Term Limits

A Director upon completion of a term may be re-elected to the Board but shall not serve more than three (3) consecutive three-year terms or three consecutive terms consisting of one partial term and two three-year terms, without a lapse of at least one full year.

Section 11.5 - Vacancies

Should a vacancy occur on the Board for any reason (death, resignation or removal), the Board may appoint another delegate or alternate delegate of a member of the Co-operative, in good standing, to fill that vacancy until the next AGM.

Section 11.6 - Meeting Attendance Requirements

A director who is absent from three (3) consecutive Board meetings without just cause may be removed from the Board by a majority vote of the Board.

Article 12 - Powers of the Capacity of the Board

Section 12.1 - General Powers & Capacity of the Board

In general, between AGMs, the Board has full power and authority to administer and direct the affairs of the Co-operative within the scope explicitly and implicitly prescribed by the Co-operatives Act of Newfoundland and Labrador, by other provincial and federal statutes and laws, by the Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws of the Co-operative, and by the direction and instruction given by the members of the Co-operative through duly approved resolutions or decisions from a AGM or Special Membership Meeting.

Section 12.2 - Specific Powers of Board

Specifically, the powers of the Board shall include, but not be limited to, the following:
